Dear Clare:

Thank you for your letter of 6 September telling me about your luncheon conversation the day before.

The letter was delivered to me by the Department of State with very little delay. Please assure Miss [redacted] that her only mistake in thirty-five years is completely understandable and we wish we had such an excellent record.

It was thoughtful of you to bring this matter to my attention. I have taken the liberty of passing the information to appropriate members of our staff who are looking into the issues which were raised.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

CLARENCE FRANCIS

September 13 1960

Dear Mr. Dulles:

[redacted] my secretary, suddenly realized that she had made the only mistake that she has made in thirty-five years, and was highly embarrassed in addressing a letter which was meant to go to you on the question of [redacted]

STAT

[redacted] to John Foster Dulles.

Of course she knew better but it was just one of those lapses that we all suffer.

When she realized that she had done this she sent a wire to the above effect to you.

We are both sorry that this happened. I herewith enclose a copy of the letter.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Allen Dulles, Chief
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Feldmann:

Through Mr. Francis W. Stover, Director of your National Legislative Service, I have received copies of Resolutions Numbers 261 and 262, adopted at the 61st Annual Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

I am grateful for the Resolution which commends me personally, and I ask you to convey my appreciation to all those who were responsible for this generous gesture.

It was most heartening to note your Resolution in support of the suggestion that this country should make a major effort to improve our educational system by teaching courses on the danger of Communism. I have received quite a few letters from educators and other thoughtful citizens who are anxious to follow up on this suggestion. I am delighted that the Veterans of Foreign Wars have seen fit to approve it.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
